danger a true history of a great city's wiles and temptations is an 1886 work by American lawyer William Frederick Howe. Howe worked for the Howe and Hummel New York City law firm which became widely celebrated during the second half of nineteenth century for its cases related to world of crime and corruption. This volume goes into detail describing some of the firm's more notable cases and paints a vivid picture of New York City's criminal underbelly at the turn of the nineteenth century. Contents include ancient and modern prisons, criminals and their haunts, street Arabs of both sexes, store girls, the pretty waiter, girl shop lifters, kleptomania, panel houses and panel thieves, a theatrical romance, a mariner's wooing the baron and baroness, the demi monde, passion's slaves and victims, etc. Read Co History is proudly republishing this classic work now in a brand new edition complete with the introductory chapter, the pleasant fiction of the presumption of innocence by Arthur Train.

hanging gardens includes a bibliography for further reading the ancient world was full of many fantastic cities and places and like today's major cities the great ancient cities were hubs of trade religion and science writing was first invented in ancient cities and many important scientific discoveries were also made in them some of which are still used in the modern world among the many cities of the ancient world rome and athens may come to mind first but the city of babylon in the land of mesopotamia was already an ancient venerated city when the others were still inconsequential settlements today babylon has become a byword for greed excess and licentiousness mostly due to its mention in the bible but a closer examination reveals that babylon was so much more and even perhaps the most important city in the ancient world ancient babylon was home to great dynasties that produced some of the world's most influential leaders most notably hammurabi and nebuchadnezzar and these rulers invoked their wills on the entire ancient near east and have been remembered as both progressive and cruel all at the same time babylon was also the seat of culture in ancient mesopotamia and the place where scholars made amazing scientific advances that would not be eclipsed for several centuries an examination of ancient babylon demonstrates that it was truly the first great city in the ancient world of course the sheer span of history between babylon's power and today has produced plenty of historical questions and controversy one of the things people most closely associate babylon with is the hanging gardens which like the great pyramid of giza were considered both a technological marvel and an aesthetic masterpiece ancient historians believed that the hanging gardens were constructed around the 7th century b c after the second rise of babylon which would make them the second oldest of the seven wonders of the ancient world and they were reputedly created by the biblical nebuchadnezzar ii the king who conquered judea to please his homesick wife after the model of egyptian pleasure gardens however in 1993 british assyriologist stephanie dalley proposed a theory that the hanging gardens were ordered built by the assyrian king sennacherib a century earlier for his giant palace at nineveh instead she believed that the two sites were easily confused by ancient sources resulting in the gardens being incorrectly located in babylon a century later babylon was also instrumental in the development of the region's religions ancient mesopotamian religion continues to captivate people for many of the same reasons today's best known religions and their histories fascinate people the religion practiced by the ancient mesopotamians provides a certain mix between the mundane and the surreal and at the same time aspects of it are both familiar and bizarre to people today some find themselves drawn to it based on its preeminent position in religious history as the oldest documented religion in the world others become fascinated with the close connections between some of the mesopotamian religious texts which include a flood story a creation story and a story of the righteous sufferer and their parallels in the hebrew bible babylon the rise and fall of ancient mesopotamia's greatest city traces the history of the city and its rise as the center of the babylonian empire along with pictures depicting important people places and events you will learn about the city of babylon like never before in no time at all a portrait of world civilization told through the stories of the world's greatest cities from ancient times to the present today for the first time in history the majority of people in the world live in cities the implications and challenges associated with this fact are enormous but how did we get here from the origins of urbanization in mesopotamia to the global metropolises of today great cities have marked the development of human civilization the great cities in history tells their stories starting with the earliest from uruk and memphis to jerusalem and alexandria next come the fabulous cities of the first millennium damascus and baghdad teotihuacan and tikal and chang an capital of tang dynasty china the medieval world saw the rise of powerful cities such as palermo and paris in europe benin in africa and angkor in southeast asia the last two sections bring us from the early modern world with isfahan agra and amsterdam to the contemporary city london and new york tokyo and barcelona los angeles and sao paulo the distinguished contributors including jan morris michael d coe simon schama orlando figes felipe fernandez armesto misha glenny susan toby evans and a n wilson evoke the character of each place people art and architecture government and explain the reasons for
